CHRISTMAS DAY CELEBRATION OUTREACH

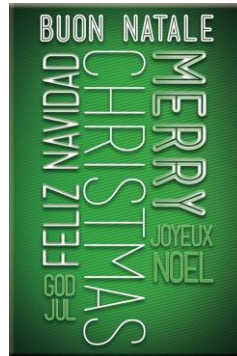

Will you be around Auckland on Christmas Day?

If so, we need you!!!

The Evangelism and Outreach Team is organising a Christmas Day Celebration Outreach. The Christmas Day Service at 10.30am will be followed by a morning tea and a pot luck lunch. If you are staying in Auckland for Christmas, let's celebrate together and also embrace other members of the community with our fellowship and friendship!!

We shall need help from members who are able to commit themselves in some way that day: e.g. bring food, distribute advertising pamphlets, set up and clear away for the event and a team to look after newcomers.

Are you able to be part of this important outreach? If so, please see Pr Mark or Jean Wong at the end of the service and express your interest to be an invaluable volunteer!!!!

ST DAVID'S FOODBANK COLLECTION FOR CHRISTMAS

Please check out the PSN foodbank update this morning. Items special for Christmas are welcome next month. Also needed is pasta like spirals, spaghetti, macaroni – not 2 minute noodles this time, thanks.

FIRE SAFETY INFORMATION REMINDER

Upstairs in the hall: In the event of a fire and when the alarm bells are ringing continuously, please exit quickly through the glass doors and round the back of the church to the assembly point against the back fence. If necessary, fire wardens will direct you round the side of the church and to the assembly point in the street.

Re-entry into the church building: You must wait for the all clear from one of the fire wardens before you can re-enter the church building.

WORKING IN THE KINGDOM (1)

'...whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant.'

Mark 10:43

Disneyland is referred to as 'the Magic Kingdom.' For those who work there, one value is emphasised above all others. It's what puts the 'magic' into that kingdom. What is it? Servanthood!

Employees are told that when you walk through those gates, you serve. You treat every encounter with people as if they were your personal guest. If they need directions, you escort them. If they ask a question you've heard a hundred times, you answer it as if you'd never heard it before.

There's a ride called the Jungle Cruise, and the most common question asked about it is, 'How long is this ride?' So the staff is given a prepared, standard answer: 'The Jungle Cruise is an exciting adventure ride that lasts ten minutes.'

But one employee had been asked it once too often, so when a couple asked, 'How long is the Jungle Cruise?' he said, 'Three days.' The couple got out of the line, left the park, went back to Disney Hotel where they were on their honeymoon, packed up their suitcases, checked out, and came back to the line at the Jungle Cruise.

The next day the Disneyland employee was gone, and someone else was standing at the line saying, 'The Jungle Cruise is an exciting adventure ride that lasts ten minutes.'

When you represent God's kingdom you're supposed to go out of your way to facilitate people, love them and meet their needs. Why? Because Jesus, Who is the king in this kingdom, said, '...the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve...' (Matthew 20:28 NIV).
