praying for others

- Rev Tang & Rev Vogel as they minister at ACPC – for wisdom & God's guidance in leading our ministries.
- ACPC congregations – that we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit & transformed by God's personal direction to us through His Word.
- For those living & working in the CBD – May we, as God's hands & feet be sensitive to the needs of our community, especially those without homes. May we be used to help, serve & bring God's hope to them in love.
- For those in our congregation suffering from illness – May You provide comfort, strength, peace of mind and healing.

World Homeless Day – what can we do?

Thank you for your donations today to “Feel Good Period”, an organisation connected with Splice who also help to cater to the number of homeless who are women. They are very much appreciated!

We are also having a working bee after church, so be a part of helping clothe our homeless neighbours! We will be sorting generously donated clothes into gender and clothing type. Many hands make light work and a joyful heart!

Good Words

Speak out to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, offering praise with voices [and instruments] and making melody with all your heart to the Lord.

- Ephesians 5:19

The King James Version translates today's verse: Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord. I like to apply this Scripture both ways. The way I speak to myself is important, and the way I speak to others is important, too.

How are we doing on giving?

“But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.”

1 Chronicles 29:14

Giving is as much (if not more) about our relationship with God and our appreciation of His blessings than it is about meeting the church's needs. As well as the church maintenance and running costs, ACPC is involved in supporting our ministry team as well as mission, outreach and education needs.

We prayerfully ask that you consider your giving and think about regular giving (not unlike our regular daily blessings) by requesting an offering number and/or setting up an automatic payment. See Marty for more details.

It is easy to fall into the trap of talking about negative things, problems, disappointments, and struggles. But none of that helps us stay filled with the Spirit and none of that reflects what the Holy Spirit wants to speak to us because He is not negative in any way. Even when He speaks to us about a problem, He speaks to bring a solution; and when He speaks to us about difficult situations, He does so to bring us comfort and strength. The more we think and talk about our problems, the weaker we become, but we are strengthened as we talk and think about Jesus and His promises to us.

Life is not always easy; we all face difficulties at times. God has filled us with His Spirit to enable us to do difficult things with ease. When you are going through a hard time, keep your ear tuned in to the voice of God. Speak the positive things God says to you through His Word and through the voice of His Spirit in your heart. We all feed on our own words so it is very important to speak good words that are full of life.
