praying for others

- Rev Tang & Rev Vogel as they minister at ACPC – for wisdom & God's guidance in leading our ministries.
- ACPC congregations – that we be intentional about nurturing and maturing our personal relationship with Jesus.
- For our neighbours in the city – that we take the opportunities to show Your kindness, love, mercy, grace and hope to our neighbourhood, especially those without homes.
- For those who are unwell – We pray for their comfort and healing, may their health and energy be restored. In particular, we place Jenna in Your precious care for rest and strength, and pray for continued healing for Indie.

Feel at Home The Word for Today

'Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.' 1 Peter 4:9 NKJV

Mother Teresa of Calcutta said this: 'I think the world today is upside down and is suffering so much because there is so very little love in the homes and in family life. We have no time for our children, we have no time for each other; there is no time to enjoy each other... Love begins at home; love lives in homes, and that is why there is so much unhappiness in the world today. If we listen to Jesus he will tell us what he said before: "Love one another, as I have loved you" (John 13:34 NIV)... If we are to bring that love into life again, we have to begin at home.'

If we don't have time for the people God has put closest to us, we'll never have time for strangers. And that is where we should be heading on our journey: 'Be hospitable... with brotherly affection for... unknown guests... foreigners, the poor and all others' (1 Peter 4:9 AMP).

If we treat our own mum like an unknown guest in our lives, what hope is there for the poor? Let's put the world the right side up, starting in our own homes.

So what now? Pray for opportunities to serve your parents and other family members. Ask God to help you see your annoying brother through his eyes. Go out on a limb to make your sister's friends feel welcome. Imagine that everyone who steps foot in your home is Jesus and seek to make them feel at home.

Sermon notes:

Reaching out each week @ acpc

Tea and Talk - games, tea and English conversation:

Thursdays 10.30am-12pm

Table tennis:

Sundays 3 - 5pm weekly

A good way to develop your table tennis skills in a friendly, stress-free atmosphere.

Griffith's Gardens

On Sunday, 10 December, the Moderator of the General Assembly, the Rt Rev Richard Dawson, will preach at our service. Afterwards we will have an urban picnic with him at Griffith Gardens from 12.00pm to 1.00pm. The Moderator of the Northern Presbytery will also be present to bless our the emerging buds on our apple trees and our hyssop plants. Our plan is for each of us, or each family, to take a simple, healthy lunch, (eg sandwiches and an apple) which we can put in the community fridge, with a blessing and greeting from ACPC.

ACPC website and resources

Please take a look at the ACPC website, the Bible studies and the resources such as "Triumphant Tweets". Let Stuart know if these are helpful and how they may be improved.
